

Railway Detours For Dam

The tracks of the Southern Pacific Railway must be shifted from the Sacramento River Canyon to make way for the gigantic Shasta Dam, which will be the key feature of the Government's Central California Project. Here is the start of the job of providing a by-pass tunnel through which the trains will operate during early construction work.

ALLEN TURNS DOWN PLEA FOR JURY QUIZ IN PAMPHLET CASE

Superior Judge James L. Allen late today declined to summon the county grand jury into special session to investigate responsibility for an anonymous political pamphlet, as requested jointly yesterday by District Attorney W. F. Menton and Sheriff Logan Jackson.

The pamphlet, which attacked Section 888, it is provided that all various political candidates and public offenses triable in the superior court must be prosecuted by indictment or information, etc. There is no provision of law permitting the grand jury to investigate misdemeanors only, and the grand jury lacks jurisdiction over misdemeanors, the presiding judge explained.

Judge Allen's decision was delivered formally to Menton and Jackson in the following communication:

I have your letter on August 23rd. in which you state;

"In view of the widespread publicity given to a certain pamphlet having been circulated throughout Orange county, and in view of subsequent rumors and accusations as to the responsibility for the writing, publication and distribution of said literature, and further in view of the attack made upon the personal character of certain candidates for office, and other citizens of Orange county, the Sheriff of Orange county and myself believe that the interests of the public would be best served by a thorough investigation of this whole matter before the Grand Jury of Orange county."

"Therefore, we jointly request that you empanel the Grand Jury at your earliest possible convenience that an opportunity may be given for a thorough and impartial investigation of these charges and counter charges."

In reply thereto, I beg to state that you do not set forth what law has been violated, but from my knowledge of the matter referred to it could only be a violation of the election laws and a criminal libel, both of which are misdemeanors.

Under the laws of California as set forth in the Penal Statutes, time.

Mary Astor Hurt In Accident

HOLLYWOOD, Aug. 24.—(UP)—Mary Astor, movie star, was confined to her bed today by injuries suffered in a fall from a horse. She was thrown to a cement paddock floor when the horse ran from an automobile. Her back and hip were bruised.

Mary Astor was mounting to ride from Riviera country club to a movie location. The horse was one given her by Actor Jack Holt.

PICKETS, WORKERS IN BATTLE

WYANDOTTE, Mich., Aug. 24.—(UP)—Police reserves were mobilized at the McCord Radiator Company plant today when pickets fought with workers attempting to enter the strike bound plant.

An estimated 150 workers, kept idle since the strike started Aug. 12, attempted to pass through the United Automobile Workers Union picket line.

A free for all fight broke out and continued for several minutes before police intervened.

Say Guards Killed Convicts

4 PRISONERS "ROASTED"

PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 24.—(UP)—Two Philadelphia county prison guards were arrested today on charges of homicide in connection with the "roasting alive" of four convicts who led a hunger strike.

The guards, Alfred Brought and Francis Smith, were taken to city hall. They will be arraigned before Magistrate Nathan A. Beifel later in the day.

19 Escaped

The arrests followed charges by Coroner Charles H. Hersch that the four prisoners died from the effects of an apparent steam scalding which probably would have killed 19 other convicts confined to the "Klondike" cells of the county prison had they been left in the intense heat an hour longer.

The naked bodies of the four convicts were turned over to relatives so disfigured that the relatives said they scarcely recognized them. Hersch, after inspecting the prison for four hours, described it as "worse than the black hole of Calcutta."

Steam Turned On

Over 600 of the prison's 1400 inmates began a hunger strike last Wednesday. The strike ended Sunday night with six men alleged to be ring-leaders in two disciplinary cells. These cells, so small that they were not large enough for one man, Hersch said, were equipped with a water tap, a bowl, and a toilet. Hersch said that after three men had been locked into each cell, the keys to the water taps were removed and someone turned steam into the radiators.

The convicts withheld the increasing heat for a while, Hersch said, by stuffing their shirts into the toilets which, equipped with automatic flushing devices, poured water on the floors. But this was not enough, he said, and soon it was a question of only one man in each cell surviving—the man strong enough to fight off the others and keep his face near the tiny slot in each cell door.

Other Inquiries

Hours later one live and two dead convicts were taken from each cell.

Besides Hersch's three other investigations—two by state agencies and one by Philadelphia police—was under way. State Secretary of Welfare Charles L. Engard arrived from Harrisburg last night to take charge of one. The police homicide squad upheld the announcement of Prison Superintendent William B. Mills that the men had died of injuries received at the setting forth of the offense charged with such particularity of time, place and persons as to enable the defendant to understand distinctly the character of the offense complained of, and to answer to the complaint.

I hold that under the case of In Re Grosbois, 109 Cal. 445, that the superior court has no jurisdiction to try misdemeanors as there is no provision for a justice to try any offense prosecuted by indictment or information.

It is clear that under the present system there is no function for a presentation by a grand jury and no authority for the arrest of a person charged in that form with the commission of a public offense. Under this holding, I believe that it would be a needless expense and would gain no purpose to call a grand jury at this point.

Coming after negotiations between the union and the retailers' council had been broken off, the invitation was accepted temporarily by Milton Marks, employers' spokesman.

Marks said it was "likely" the invitation would be accepted. He said he had no objections to members of the union attending but said the meeting was not to be construed as a resumption of negotiations.

AFL In New Move For Peace

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 24.—(UP)—A special peace committee of the A. F. of L. central labor council today asked representatives of 27 retail stores to meet in an effort to settle a dispute with the Retail Clerks Union.

Coming after negotiations between the union and the retailers' council had been broken off, the invitation was accepted temporarily by Milton Marks, employers' spokesman.

Marks said it was "likely" the invitation would be accepted. He said he had no objections to members of the union attending but said the meeting was not to be construed as a resumption of negotiations.

24 Die In Nippon Air Tragedy

TOKYO, Aug. 24.—(UP)—Two airplanes collided over Omori today and crashed into an iron works, starting a fire which caused heavy casualties.

It was estimated tonight that 24 were dead, including the six occupants of the planes and more than 180 workers injured.

The factory consists of scattered groups of small buildings. Exploding gas tanks spread the fire over a wide area. The factory is surrounded by a thickly populated section of workers' houses.

An airplane belonging to an aviation school was being flown over Omori, Midway between Tokyo and Yokohama, with its crew of three when it collided with a passenger plane containing a crew of three but no passengers. Crashing onto the iron works, the planes exploded.

TAKES BIBLE LITERALLY, WOMAN "CASTS OFF HAND-PLUCKS OUT EYE" AFTER SESSION OF PRAYER

After the evening meal Mrs. Harwell and her husband, Woodrow Harwell, 20, gathered their two small sons about them in their one-room cabin for the nightly reading of the bible.

Mrs. Harwell read. Her husband and oldest son, 10, interrupted her frequently with an "amen." Mrs. Harwell came to the book of Matthew, chapter 18, verses eight and nine:

"Therefore if thy hand or thy foot offend thee cut them off and cast them from thee; it is better for thee to enter life halt or maimed than having two hands or feet to cast into everlasting fire."

"And if thine eye offend thee pluck it out and cast it from thee; it is better for thee to enter into life with one eye rather than having two eyes to be cast into hell fire."

SUPERVISORS SEEK TO BLOCK MENTON MOVE IN FEE FIGHT

The county supervisors have a new "attorney."

The board yesterday authorized Supervisor John Mitchell to represent it at a court hearing scheduled Friday to oppose District Attorney W. F. Menton's move to withdraw from the $100,000 fee suit against Sheriff Logan Jackson.

The action came after vigorous discussion of Menton's step between members of the board and Deputy District Attorney J. E. Walker, in which the district attorney's attitude and that of the "special assistant," Attorney Edgar Hervey, of San Diego, who was hired by the board, were de-demand to Hervey in time for him to file the bill, West claimed.

Deputy District Attorney Walker observed that Hervey knew that a demand would be filed for particular and he should have had the information ready for filing a day's notice. Moreover, Walker said, Hervey could have come into court and obtained an extension of time if he could show that the demand had been delayed in reaching him.

SEE MOVE AS NEW THREAT

LONDON, Aug. 24.—(UP)—The British government fears that there is to be a new wave of foreign intervention in the Spanish civil war, intended to smash the Loyalists by sheer might, it was indicated today.

British leaders showed signs of acute anxiety over the disclosure yesterday that Italy had sent drafts of regular army officers and men to replace "volunteers" killed or wounded in recent fighting.

Hold Conference

Sir John Simon, chancellor of the exchequer, arrived in London today from Scotland, where he was on vacation, and went at once into conference with Prime Minister Neville Chamberlain and Viscount Halifax, foreign secretary.

Not only was the new situation a menace to the British-Italian friendship treaty but it seemed to be regarded as a danger to peace.

For the moment, the British government seemed to favor a new approach to the Spanish Nationalists, in hope that they could be persuaded to agree to evacuation of foreign troops fighting in the civil war.

LOYALISTS RUSH PLANES TO FRONT

HENDAYE, FRENCH-SPANISH FRONTIER, Aug. 24.—(UP)—The government rushed airplanes to the central front today to halt a new Nationalist threat to vital communications southwest of Madrid.

A government communiqué admitted reverses on the northern Estremadura front 90 miles west of Madrid and the insurgents claimed major successes. The Nationalists pierced new Loyalist territory where the government had weakened its lines to meet the insurgent threat against the Almaden mercury mines.

Fight In Air

Aerial battles were reported in progress on all fronts, chiefly over the hotly-contested area along the Ebro river where the Loyalists have held out for nearly a month against persistent insurgent attacks.

Generalissimo Francisco Franco's counter offensive in the Ebro area entered its sixth day today, but where the insurgents claimed to have cleared out the Loyalists, reinforcements blocked the way.

Get New Planes

The Loyalists were reported to have received considerable new equipment in the last few days, chiefly planes. Last night a government communiqué claimed a big victory for the rejuvenated air force in the Ebro sector with 17 insurrectionary planes shot down in a series of aerial battles.

A Nationalist dispatch from Alcañiz claimed that during the day's aerial battles six government planes were shot down, three of them American Boeings. The government claimed that only one Loyalist plane was lost and that its pilot was saved.

LAUNCH MOVE TO LOWER COUNTY TAX RATE

FREE TUITIONS ARE ASSAILED

Determined to make every effort possible in lowering the tax rate in the county, a representative group of members of the Property Owners Association of Orange county last night framed a three-fold program that includes a study of the proposed county budget, publicizing all names on county relief rolls, and discontinuing free tuition for out of state junior college students.

Suggestion for the publicizing of names on relief rolls was made by Lewis Burkenstock, Placentia rancher when Deputy County Auditor Les Eckel reported that if the words "welfare" or "indigent" appear on county relief checks, the federal government will not contribute relief funds.

Names on relief rolls are open to any tax-payer, it was pointed out, and the association is at liberty to order printed the names at regular newspaper rates. The county is not permitted to publicize the names.

A committee of five was appointed to make a full investigation of the proposed county budget and prepare recommendations to the board of county supervisors in public hearing on Friday. Members of the committee are: William H. Spurgeon Jr., Santa Ana; C. Stanley Chapman, Fullerton; Frank A. Monroe, Garden Grove; Max Royer, Fullerton, and Ray C. Lambert, El Toro. The committee will meet at 8 a.m. tomorrow at the offices of Spurgeon to make initial study of the county budget.

On recommendation of R. C. Hoiles, Santa Ana, the group framed the following resolution to be sent to the Fullerton and Santa Ana boards of education:

"RESOLVED: That the junior colleges in Orange county should discontinue the practice of permitting students from outside of the state to attend junior colleges unless they pay the full cost of their tuition."

PWA Projects Are Restored

WASHINGTON, Aug. 24.—(UP)—The Public Works Administration today announced restoration to active status of the San Gabriel, Calif., sewer project, one of eight California projects suspended because of alleged lobbying activities.

Investigation disclosed that Glenn E. Miller, charged with attempting to obtain favorable consideration of application, had no connection with the project calling for $202,500 grant, officials said.

Previously officials cleared the South Laguna, Calif., waterworks project.

Acting PWA Administrator Howard A. Gray has approved the final grant payment to Tehachapi, Calif., for its sewer disposal project, it was also learned. The payment had been held up while alleged lobbying was investigated.

Two More Chapters In Torso Murder Story

Beneath a heap of rubbish in a dump near the shores of Lake Erie at Cleveland detectives are shown examining the remains of one of the two latest victims of the city's torso terror killer. Detective Peter Merylo is pictured pulling out a stained pillow slip in which a section of one of the bodies was discovered.

MEXICAN COUNSEL SUPPORTS WORKERS IN WAGE DEMANDS

Striking Mexican vegetable field workers of Orange county today took on the aspect of a solid front in order to gain an increase of five cents an hour in wages, from 25 to 30 cents, and to pave the way for negotiations with Japanese and American growers and the Associated Farmers, leaders declared this morning.

The announcement was made by Lucas Lucio, representative of Mexican laborers, and Dorothy Ray, CIO representative from Los Angeles, following a meeting of hundreds of Mexican laborers last night in Gloryetta Hall in Delhi where they heard Resal Heredia, Mexican consul in Los Angeles.

Heredia was quoted as saying that he was in favor of any action that had been taken by the Mexican workers, and that if they had voluntarily become affiliated with the CIO and continued to be members, "then I will do everything that I can to help this group obtain a settlement of the strike."

At the same time, Miss Ray declared the CIO, representing the Orange county strikers would wire the Dies Congressional committee in Washington, D. C., today, charging un-American activities on the part of the Associated Farmers. The following telegram, she said, already had been sent to Walter F. Dexter, state superin-

dent of public instruction, at Sacramento, Calif.;

"More than 1500 workers of the CIO agricultural Workers Union vigorously protest action of the local board of education in closing Mexican schools here so that growers here may employ Mexican children in picking walnuts. This action not only deprives children of vital education but also destroys wage levels for adults. We request that you take immediate action. (Signed), Angel Echeverria, president Local CIO."

"Unless we can come to some agreement with the Associated Farmers and the growers," Miss Ray said, "we will call a public meeting to present all facts in the situation at hand, and let the public decide which is right."

The statement of Lucio was a lengthy denial of assertions made by George Graham, secretary of the Associated Farmers, in which the latter scathingly denounced Lucio as an agitator.

Meanwhile, the Associated Farmers were making time, the last statement that had come from them having been a declaration from Graham that if the difficulties continue, migrant American labor will be imported to harvest field crops in the local area.

FEAR 13 DEAD AS CHINESE PASSENGER PLANE SHOT DOWN

HONGKONG, Aug. 24.—(UP)—A Chinese passenger plane piloted by an American was shot down near Canton today. Chinese announced officially that the attacking planes were Japanese and of the plane's 14 passengers and crew of three, 13 were dead or missing.

The official statement said five Japanese planes converged on the passenger plane, firing machine guns. It was forced out of control and plunged into the river, where it was machine gunned again. The Chinese said the plane was riddled and was now partly submerged, with the tail and part of the fuselage out of water.

Suffer Wounds

The American pilot, H. L. Wood of Winfield, Kan., made his way to Macao by motor car. He was uninjured. He brought with him an injured Chinese passenger, C. N. Lou, who was operated on in the hospital for a machine gun bullet in the neck.

Shoot Victims

Wood said five Japanese planes chased his plane shortly after it left Hong Kong. He attempted to escape but was overtaken by the plane riddled with bullets, and it plunged into the river at Wang-moon, near Cheungkai, 10 miles east of Shekki.

Wood corroborated Chinese assertions that the Japanese continued to machine gun the fallen plane and also its passengers and crew as they tried to escape by swimming ashore.

The plane is operated by the Chinese National Aviation company, which is 45 per cent American owned. It was en route from Hong Kong to Wu-chow. Its 14 passengers were all Chinese. Most of them were bankers going to Chungking to attend a conference. They included Hsu Sing-loh, general manager of the National Commercial Bank of Shanghai, and Hu Pi-kang, general manager of the China South Seas Bank in Hong Kong.

Escapes Tragedy

The plane was to have carried Dr. Sun Fo, American-educated Chinese official, but he cancelled his passage and took a Eurasia plane to Hankow. He had just returned from an undisclosed mission abroad.

SET TAX RATE IN FULLERTON

FULLERTON, Aug. 24.—First reading was given an ordinance setting the city tax rate at $1.43 at a meeting of the city council last night. The tax provides 96 1/2 cents for the general fund, 23 1/2 cents for the library fund and 2 cents for bond redemption and interest.

City engineer Herman Hiltcher and City Clerk Fred Hemmehatch were authorized to sign a new WPA project grant for labor.

Contract was let to the Enso construction company for paving of part of Ichikoshi and Raymond avenue. The cost is about $7600. Letters were received asking that names be withdrawn from the petition recently presented protesting the purchase of property for the new city hall on West Commonwealth avenue. One man, been told that the petition was to Emory Tate, reported that he had restrained the council from buying additional property for the building. More than 25 persons have asked that their names be withdrawn, it was reported.

FIREMEN CALLED OUT

Only run made by Santa Ana firemen in the last 48 hours was that a 4:03 p.m. yesterday when an automobile belonging to Charles J. Froehle, of Alhambra, was thought to have been threatened by a blaze while it was parked at 1832 West First street. A slight fire was caused by a short-circuit in the stop-light, but no damage resulted, firemen said.

His Wife ("Prettiest Bride") Stands by Hines at Trial

Although he is the defendant in a Dewey racket-busting trial that may send him to prison, James J. Hines appears completely unworried in this picture, taken in his New York home. Relaxed in a green and black striped dressing gown, he appears smilingly confident, with his cheerfulness reflected on the face of his wife. The silver-haired Mrs. Hines, whom her husband for 35 years calls "the prettiest bride in New York," declared her intention of attending the hearings.

LAMBERT ANSWERS WEST IN CAMPAIGN CARD CONTROVERSY

Assertions by Supervisor N. E. West at yesterday's meeting of the board that County Auditor W. T. Lambert has inserted his campaign cards in envelopes containing relief checks mailed out to welfare department clients, were met today with a statement by Lambert that "there is no reason, legal or otherwise, why he should not do it."

West had declared that "if there isn't a law against it there should be."

Lambert said he had an opinion from Deputy District Attorney J. E. Walker, confirmed by District Attorney W. F. Menton, to the effect that there is no legal irregularity involved.

Meanwhile the supervisors were waiting for a formal written opinion of the district attorney which West requested yesterday.

Grant Permits

The board yesterday granted permits for dances and carnivals to be held on week ends by Mexican communities at Placentia and El Modena, to raise funds for celebrations of Mexican Independence Day September 15 and 16.

Protest Taxes

Letters to the supervisors from two taxpayers yesterday protested "high" taxes. One was from Viola D. Franklin, 1001 East Chestnut, Santa Ana, the other from C. N. Grace, R. D. 1, Garden Grove, who said he owns various properties, including a brick business building in Orange, and that taxes building in Orange, and that taxes are burdensome.

Supervisor Harry Riley reported that some farm bureau officials and packing house officials had urged to him that the board keep the county budget at a level no higher than last year.

"Lots of the increase is due to salary raises. Do they want us to cut that?" asked Supervisor John Mitchell.

The board accepted the offer of the Yorba Linda fire company to give the county the fire truck there, on condition that it be maintained at Yorba Linda.

CANDIDATES SPEAK

Interviewed by his brother, Eddie, well known Santa Ana newspaperman, Attorney Franklin G. West will answer questions about his candidacy for superior judge over Radio KVOC tonight, between 8:45 and 9 o'clock.

The Honorable J. F. T. O'Connor, former United States Controller of Currency, now candidate for the Democratic nomination for governor of California, was in Orange county today. After a day spent in the various towns throughout the county Mr. O'Connor will address a meeting in Birch park at 8 o'clock. He will speak on platform and issues of the campaign. Leo Carillo of movie fame, and great grandson of the first provisional governor of California, also is expected to speak for Mr. O'Connor. From 7 until 8 o'clock the N. Y. A. band will give a fine concert under the leadership of Ted Collins.

The Assembly of Democrats will hold a meeting in College hall Thursday night at 8 o'clock, with a number of Democratic candidates scheduled to speak, it was announced today by Mrs. M. E. Geeting. Horace Head will preside.

Boy's Voice Is Contract Basis

HOLLYWOOD, Aug. 24.—(UPI)—Frankie Thomas, a 16 year old actor from Broadway, today signed a contract containing a clause guaranteeing that his voice won't change while he is working in a series of movies.

Thomas is cast as young Bonita, Franklin's boy friend in the picture "Passport to Larkspur Lake" and will act in a series of Nancy Drew girl detective pictures. If his voice should grow huskier before the series is finished, he would have to be dropped from the cast because his "talkie personality" would be changed, Warner brothers studio explained.

The bagpipe not only is widely used in Scotland, but also in Poland, Italy and southern France,

HOLD MAN ON $10,000 BOND

Hold under $10,000 bond, Elliott Benjamin, 24, solicitor from Los Angeles, who is charged with the commission of lewd and lascivious acts in the presence of two young Santa Ana girls, today was bound over to Superior Court where he soon will face the felony charge.

Benjamin's was one of four cases which this morning attracted the attention of acting Santa Ana Justice Chris P. Pann and Court Clerks Charles Tulane and Ralph Gordon.

The others were those of the state against George Ferkins of Orange; the state against Silas Huntley of Santa Ana; and a civil case, H. T. Outland against the Kelly Roofing Co., and others.

Justice Pann held Benjamin to Superior court after hearing the testimony of the two girls, who alleged that Benjamin made improper advances when he assertedly forced his way into the home of one of them. The defendants were remanded to county jail in default of bond.

Ferkins, charged with driving while drunk following a traffic accident Aug. 7 in which two persons were seriously injured, had pleaded not guilty before Justice Cal D. Lester of Orange, and later won a motion for a change of venue to the local court. The case was set for hearing on Sept. 20. Ferkins was arrested by Highway Patrolman Harry Wild.

Huntley, charged with obscenity and other disturbance in the presence of his wife, was sentenced to 30 days in the county jail on his plea of guilty. The Outland case is expected to consume most of the rest of the day in Justice Pann's court.

Highway patrolmen said Swartzbaugh suffered slight injuries when the automobile he was driving collided with a machine driven by Anna Rosetta, 48, R. 3, Box 494 E, Santa Ana. He was treated at the office of a local physician. This accident occurred at Lincoln boulevard and Brookhurst road at 8:15 p. m. yesterday.

The army is reported to be planning a $2,500,000, 75-ton bomber—biggest fighting airship in the world.

300,000 "JITTERBUGS" SWARM TO JAM SESSION IN CHICAGO

CHICAGO, Aug. 24.—(UP)—Three hundred thousand jitterbugs trucked over to Soldiers Field last night for the jammest session ever jammed and ended up truckin' unrestrained with every available policeman in the city.

Legionnaires Speed Campaign

Dodder said, "We sent letters to each member of the organization explaining the generous offer of The Register to lend full support in obtaining sufficient money to buy drums, bugles and uniforms, including those of four young majorettes who will lead the corps in the big parade."

Another member of the committee, which includes Glen Cave and Norman Reeves, said that 38 out of 29 Legion members contacted yesterday in the drive, already were subscribers to The Register, and firmly resolved to do their bit in obtaining supporters to the fund. "They all know what they are backing in this campaign, and that is half the battle in working in the field. Of course, when it is realized that members of the corps come from all parts of the county, it is easy to see that whole-hearted cooperation is a foregone conclusion. The drive will end Sept. 15, and every member is urged to lend his aid to go over the top."

That the Santa Ana Drum and Bugle Corps stands a good chance of garnering national honors this year is indicated by the fact that scouts from San Gabriel, where the championship now rests, and other points were present at the regular drill session of the corps at Santiago Park last night.

Trust God, Bar Doctor For Son

By N.E.A. Service

Relying on faith in the Word of God, instead of on the skill of men, the Rev. and Mrs. James Winstead sit by the bedside of their desperately-ill son, Carl Rae Winstead. Permitting no sedatives to ease from the Bible.

They have refused to allow physicians to treat him, though medical examination reveals an infection that has already paralyzed one leg. Should it strike there it would be fatal.

Court Attorney J. G. Young tried to force the parents to provide medical attention, but failing to find warrant at law for his action, has said that he will prosecute the parents on manslaughter charges should the boy die.

The swingers, to all appearances a picnic group gone mad, pushed and shoved but none was injured. They did the Shag, Floy-Floy, Slim-Slam, Limping Dog and Susie Q—young and old alike—and danced around with policemen.

Five feet from the boy's bedside, members of the father's congregation, the Assembly of God, Pentecostal Church, gather periodically to pray for the boy. The Rev. Winstead told the assembly, "I say to the unbeliever, God is healing my child."

Carl Rae avers his own faith in recovery through prayer while a wave of callers and correspondents appeal constantly to the parents, stand and offering prayers for the boy's recovery.

CALHOUN BACK IN JAIL HERE

Charles Calhoun, 28-year-old slayer of his 30-year-old step-father, Clyde Dillinger, today was back in the Orange county jail, in a single cell.

Calhoun, who twice went berserk after he had been jailed on a charge of murdering the cousin of John Dillinger, was transferred late yesterday from the Orange county hospital to the jail by Deputy Sheriffs Steve Duhart and James Musick.

The transfer was made after Sheriff Logan Jackson had received a call from Dr. Robert Patrick, of the hospital staff, saying that "Calhoun is not insane and is ready to go back to his cell."

Calhoun will have a jury trial on the question of his sanity September 6 before Judge James L. Allen. Attorney N. D. Meyer, representing Calhoun in connection with the charge of murdering Dillinger, demanded the jury trial after the court had received a report from two alienists that Calhoun is sane.

"We're taking no chances on Calhoun biting any more prisoners," Deputy Jailed Bill Young said this morning. "He's in a cell by himself and has been very quiet."

ELEVEN PAY FINES ON TRAFFIC COUNTS

Eleven persons, including Elmer P. Peterson, of 1027 South Main street, who pleaded not guilty to a charge of driving while intoxicated, appeared in Judge John G. Mitchell's city court yesterday.

Peterson, who according to the records was arrested on the charge on Aug. 8, denied guilt, waived a jury trial and the time for hearing of his case was set for 10 a. m. next Wednesday.

Of the other 10 persons, three pleaded guilty to speeding and each was fined $8 and costs, and three paid $1 each for overtime parking. The former: Mrs. Juanita Lake, of Long Beach; L. Henslee Smith, Highland; and Kenneth J. Snyder, of Ontario. For overtime parking: C. H. Hollies, J. C. Metzgar and William H. Titchener, all of Santa Ana.

Court records showed that another local youth was turned over to juvenile court authorities on the assertion he had ridden his bicycle on sidewalks in the city. One vagrant received a suspended 10-day sentence, and two drunkards were fined.

Hold Stage at 'Red' Hearing

Representative Noah Mason (R-Ill.), above, and Margaret A. Kerr, right, representing the Los Angeles Better America League, played leading roles in the Dies committee hearing of "Red" charges in Washington. Mason leveled accusations of Communistic activity at eight government officials. Testimony of Miss Kerr, billed as a "mystery witness," will be used in making a decision on charges that federal officials protected C.I.O. Leader Harry Bridges against deportation.

NEWSPAPERmen ARE GUESTS ON BARGE

Despite a heavy running sea that put a crimp in the fishing activity, 16 members of The Register staff last night enjoyed themselves to the fullest on "The Star of Hollywood," fishing barge and pleasure ship anchored three miles off the coast of Huntington Beach.

Four car-loads of ardent anglers piled into the water taxi stationed at Huntington Beach pier shortly before 7 p.m. and soon were "sailing" over the bounding main" to the all-steel "play ship of the Pacific" where they were greeted by Captain H. W. Hellman, master in charge of the ship.

M. E. Hixson, public relations counsel for the enterprise, was in charge of the trip to the fishing barge and, assisted by First Officer C. D. Dowling, took the group on a tour of the ship before the anglers sat down to a steak dinner.

According to Dowling, the ship is of all-steel construction and is a former "O" boat, built in Scotland in 1918.

At the time of its construction it was designed as a submarine destroyer and is built to look like a merchant marine vessel. Actually, it is a destroyer-type ship and has an engine of 6000 horsepower capable of driving the ship at a speed of 28 knots or a land speed of 32 miles per hour.

"The chief method of attack on submarines during the war was the lowering of depth bombs," Officer Dowling stated, "although anti-submarine guns were mounted fore and aft." The discharge valve for the depth bombs may still be seen on the main deck of the ship.

Included in the tour of inspection was the engine room, the officer's control room and master's chart room, as well as the spacious dining room and below-deck rathskeller for private parties.

Officials of the boat plan to have all-year service on the ship and have received numerous inquiries from the east and middle west concerning facilities.

Those who participated in last night's outing included: E. J. MELBOUR

NEW BEACH BOWL SOUGHT BY C. OF C. LEADERS

COUNCIL GETS PROJECT SOON

HUNTINGTON BEACH, Aug. 24.—Directors of the chamber of commerce have launched a concerted campaign to secure a large open air beach bowl, with the matter scheduled to be presented to the city council next Monday night. The council will be asked to apply for PWA funds.

Dr. L. F. Whittaker, president of the chamber of commerce, has appointed a committee consisting of W. J. Bristol, F. E. Bundy and Walter Dabney to complete the plans and take them before the city council.

According to chamber officials, the need of such a bowl was evident last Sunday during the twins' convention at the beach. Mayor M. M. McCullen, Bob De Britton, S. R. Bowen and others have endorsed the project, according to officials of the chamber.

The proposed plan includes the construction of a large shell-shaped bowl and seats cut in the bank of the bluff for the spectators.

Officers Chosen By Mesa Auxiliary

COSTA MESA, Aug. 24.—Hattie Tait, outgoing president of the Costa Mesa American Legion auxiliary, was honored at the meeting of the group Monday evening at the American Legion hall. Presentations made to Mrs. Tait included a president's pin by Grace Cox, junior past president, and a basket of dahlias by Josephine Payne. The flowers were grown by Chester Fisher.

Highlight of the business session included an amendment to the by-laws dividing the office of secretary-treasurer. Elected to the two positions were Rose Grable and Velma Croft. Altred Day was elected executive committee woman replacing Mrs. Croft, who resigned her executive position when elected to the treasurer's office. Rose Grable was hostess, serving ice cream and cake.

Among the visitors were Margaret Macinnis, Gold Star mother of the Mesa auxiliary; her daughter who is visiting here from Green Bay, Wis.; Marjorie Peabody of La Habra, district educational chairman; Vivian Nicodemus of Terra, county council president; Harriet Boyd of Anaheim, district publicity chairman; Katherine Allen of Huntington Beach, district Americanism chairman; Dr. Berne Bennett Mohn and Pearl Wilson, new president and secretary of the Huntington Beach unit, and Miss Mary Elizabeth Grube, daughter of the incoming Mesa president.

Dinner Observes 25th Anniversary

GARDEN GROVE, Aug. 24.—A family gathering was held Monday evening at Anaheim park in celebration of the 25th wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Launder. The long picnic table was centered with a prettily decorated cake topped with a miniature bride and bridegroom. Relatives presented the honored couple with a beautiful chest of silverware.

Those present on this happy occasion were Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Launder and sons, Willard and Edward; Mr. and Mrs. Ray Launder; Mr. and Mrs. George Aldridge; of Alhambra; Mr. and Mrs. Theron Scovil, Mr. and Mrs. Tommy McCullum and son, Ronald, of Santa Ana.

OVER 3000 ATTEND COMMUNITY BARBECUE IN BREA CITY PARK

BREA, Aug. 24.—Over 3000 residents and friends attended the annual Brea community barbecue at the city park last night. The affair was sponsored by the city of Brea, Lions club and the American Legion.

Following the free dinner, Leander Auer, acting as master of ceremonies, presented the program. Under his direction the Brea-Olinda school band presented a half hour concert of band music. A brass sextette and an alto horn quartet presented numbers. Miss June Massey and Duane Verdel, local young people, presented a group of songs.

The Arlington accordion duo entertained with several numbers. The Campion sisters of the Orpheum circuit sang a group of novelty songs. The program closed with a street dance with the Junior Chamber of Commerce dance band furnishing the music.

The Boy Scouts were in charge of the serving.

Engagement Told At Informal Party

GARDEN GROVE, Aug. 24.—Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Cosner of Garden Grove announced the engagement of their daughter, Catherine, to Mr. Peter Tuman Jr., son of Peter Tuman of Chicago, to a group of friends of the bride-elect at an informal party held in the Cosner home Monday afternoon. The wedding will be in October.

The guests were entertained with pictures taken by Beth and Norma Cosner, recently returned from a nine weeks vacation in Hawaii. Refreshments of ice cream, cookies and coffee were served to the Misses Frances Bragg, Eunice Bragg, Floyce Haas, Euelda Bowmen, Beth Cosner, Norma Cosner, Mesdames Rush Bumgardner, C. E. Corner, John Mitchell, Lloyd Gowdy and Miss Catherine Cosner.

LAGUNA SCHOOL INCREASE SEEN

LAGUNA BEACH, Aug. 24.—With reopening of the local public schools set for September 12, various problems are faced by the school board. Chief among these is that of accommodations for the expected increase in enrollment which for the past four years has been constantly on the up trend.

Last year's enrolments were, in the kindergarten and first six grades, 382 pupils, and in the junior and senior high school, 389. These figures will undoubtedly be exceeded during the coming year. Various arrangements have been made including the addition of rooms to the shop building, reconstruction of the patio with a view to its use for outdoor classes, and readjustment of seating in other rooms.

If the present rate of growth is maintained, a new school building in South Laguna, which is inside the Laguna Unified school district, will be erected, on property already secured by the school board. The new unit will contain either four or five class-rooms.

Swimming Meet Set For Aug. 27

NEWPORT BEACH, Aug. 24.—Young swimmers from all Southern California are expected to compete in the 18 events scheduled for the swimming meet Saturday at Balboa. Diving contests are to begin at 11 o'clock, with swimming events to begin at 1 o'clock.

Arrangements for the event are in charge of three swimming instructors, Charley Plummer, Sunny Walker and J. M. Clark. Committee members from the 20-30 club, Newport Harbor Service club and Lions club will assist.

Three Newport harbor championships medals of special design will be awarded winners in each class. Entries must be filed by 6 o'clock Friday with any member of the committee in charge, at the ferry landing office or at the Newport Harbor Chamber of Commerce.

SANITARY DISTRICT PETITION GRANTED

A petition signed by 36 property owners at Midway City, asking formation of a sanitary district there, was accepted by the county supervisors late yesterday, and George L. Bates, Santa Ana engineer, who was employed to prepare data on bond values in that area, preliminary to an election on the proposal.

The board took this step at the suggestion of Burr Brown, representing proponents of the district, who stated that such data would be necessary to inform the board on the ability of such a district to float a bond issue if it were formed. Lack of such bond values balked a similar move four years ago, when assessed values were lower and the property more encumbered by liens, he said.

A majority vote would be required from the district, but two-thirds majority would be required to carry any subsequent bond issue.

The community, said Brown, plans a $75,000 system of sewage lines and a small treatment plant. An informal poll of the area, in petition form, showed 167 favoring the district and only five opposed.

Buy Vehicles
The board yesterday authorized Purchasing Agent Eugene Fornell to purchase the two four-wheel-drive motor vehicles requested by the flood control department, to facilitate transportation over the Santa Ana river sands and similar terrain which an ordinary car could not negotiate. The station wagon and pick-up truck ordered will cost $2100 each.

Award Contract

The $4219 bid of the Fawell Contracting Company, of Garden Grove, for supplying 500 feet of 30-inch pipe and 2800 feet of 24-inch pipe for highway culverts, was accepted and the contract awarded. Two other bids were received, the highest being $7007.

Kinks Took the Floor

"What the devil's going on?" he demanded.

Miss Fenimore pointed shakily under the bed.

"S-s-snakes," she quavered.

"Yes, I know," said Kinks. "They're probably harmless. Pierre uses them in his act, I guess."

"I—I must have been sleep-walking," panted Miss Fenimore guiltily. "And all at once I came to in here with a box of s-s-snakes."

Sally and Kinks exchanged glances. Then, suddenly, Bull Griffin stepped past Kinks and stripped the covers from the bed.

THE Little Cheese

This state of affairs had driven Miss Fenimore insane with curiosity. On several occasions she had peeped through Pierre's half-open door and glimpsed a heterogeneous collection of trunks, bags, and bundles. They intrigued her beyond belief. And then on Friday, when Pierre announced his intention of remaining away overnight, Miss Fenimore had heard Opportunity knocking.

Accordingly, when convinced that the household slept, she had slipped downstairs. And Wolfgang, the dachshund, had slipped with her, to the ultimate confusion of the Little Cheese.

The first of the Great Pierre's cases that Miss Fenimore opened proved disappointing. It contained a number of gadgets whose purpose she did not understand. But, casting about, she found a long wooden box with perforations all over it. It interested her immediately. She unfastened the catch.

The next instant Miss Fenimore recoiled in horror and uttered the shriek to end shrieks. And just as she did so a wild man with a gun in his hand hurtled through the door, leapt over a cascade of snakes that poured from the box and covered himself up with the bedclothes.

Detailed reports of the recent session of the United States Chamber of Commerce at Stanford were submitted by John Morgan, of Anaheim, William Gallienne of Huntington Beach and Harry Welch of Newport.

Next meeting of the organization will be held the latter part of September in Huntington Beach. John Crill of Garden Grove, past president, presided in the absence of Harry Arthur of Anaheim, detained because of a traffic accident in his family. Dinner was served by the Woman's Aid Society of Community Methodist church.

Anaheim To Hold Pet Show Friday

ANAHEIM, Aug. 24.—Second of the exhibition events planned by the Anaheim recreation commission is the pet show, to be held Friday morning at the south corridor of the city park theater where the doll show attracted considerable interest week ago.

Entries should be registered with Miss Blanche Barnum between 10 a.m. and 3 p.m. Thursday, phone 4825. Exhibitors must provide their own cages and drinking containers. The hours of exhibition on Friday will be 9 a.m. until noon.

SMEDLEY TELLS 20-30 CLUB THINKERS NEEDED BY NATION

"Today there is a vital need for some kind of constructive effort to train young people for good citizenship," Ralph Smedley, Y.M.C.A. secretary declared last night when he addressed members of the local 20-30 club when they met in Daniger's cafe.

"Never before has there been such a need for good citizens as there is today. There is need to help people to think intelligently and to study and read understandingly the history of the United States and of ancient history," the speaker said.

Smedley pointed out that today in America one of the ideals of citizenship is the idea of getting something for nothing regardless of who has to pay the bills. Many, in his opinion, have become "moral softies."

"We must keep our minds open and take something new and digest it." He warned against accepting everything merely because it was new, however.

The speaker pointed out a growing need in this country and community for the training of good citizens. He revealed that there are hundreds of people who are growing up, who, born here of foreign parentage, are becoming of age and whose votes will mean as much as anyone else's.

The danger lies, he said, in the fact that many of the Mexican and other foreign youths of the section, have not assimilated their ideas to the American way of thinking. On the other hand, he showed, there are many who are anxious to become good American citizens.

"We are permitting a very dangerous thing to grow up in our country and we are at fault," so declared Smedley. He then offered as a means to counteract this danger by a constructive program of teaching the growing generation the true ideals of American citizenship. This, he said, could be done by the young leaders of today, as exemplified by the 20-30 group.

Fred D. Johnston as program chairman introduced Secretary Smedley. President Wylie Carlyle presided at the meeting. A complete report on the 20-30 club's national convention held at El Paso, Tex., last week, was given by Herbert L. Hill, local chapter delegate.

BLAME DRIVER IN AUTO DEATH

Blame for the traffic death of Charles W. Bush, 71, resident of Anaheim, who died last Sunday in Fullerton General hospital, today had been laid at the door of Perry Haxton, Jr., of near Fullerton.

This was the report of Coroner Earl Abbey following an inquest that was held yesterday at the Hilligenfeld chapel in Anaheim when a coroner's jury held that Bush was walking in a pedestrian zone at Palm and Cypress streets, Anaheim, more than two weeks ago when he was struck by an automobile driven by Haxton. The jury found that Bush's fatal injury "was due to negligence on the part of the driver of the automobile."

Funeral services for Mr. Bush were conducted at 10 a.m. today with the Rev. R. Kells Swenerton officiating. Interment was made in Anaheim cemetery.

C. C. Group Talks City Charter

Further plans of the joint committee from the Santa Ana Chamber of Commerce and the Santa Ana Realty Board to take necessary steps for the formation of a city charter and a subsequent installation of a city manager form of government were made in a closed meeting at the offices of John Harvey, local attorney, yesterday afternoon.

No information concerning the meeting was divulged, members of the committee feeling that "publicity" on the matter at the present time might injure the move.

Harvey did say, however, that names of citizens interested in the move were up for consideration for a city-wide committee to present the proposal to the voters by the November election.

Opening her attractive new home at 2103 North Flower street to members of Legion Mothers club Monday, Mrs. Eugene Robinson was hostess at a gaiety affair highlighted by a number of special features.

The many lovely flowers arranged throughout the rooms were from the home gardens as well as from those of interested friends. Mrs. Iona Sharp provided a bouquet of dahlias in Margaret Hill, Alma Kellogg, Susie of trailing clematis whose white blossoms were delicately charming.

The large bouquet of vari-hued flowers was Mr. Robinson's gift to his wife on their 17th wedding anniversary, which was Monday. Mothers club members presented their hostess with a potted plant.

Luncheon was served at tables set up in the living room and in the patio. Assisting Mrs. Robinson were Miss Louise Tubbs, Mrs. Evelyn Imhoff, Mrs. Beulah Duckett and Mrs. Ann Lehner. Mrs. Duckett is president, and Mrs. Lehner, junior past president of Legion Auxiliary.

Mrs. Imhoff presented Mothers club with a framed picture of the group, with the provision that it will be hung at Veterans hall. The picture was taken at recent meeting of the organization.

Members present were the president, Mrs. Amy Stewart and Mesdames Cora Adams, Elma McKay, Hattie Stowe, Iona Sharp, Marjorie tones, as well as clusters Lamb, Martha Elliott, Althea Scudder, Emma Rose, Mary Croal, Maud Wallace, Nannie Lester, Fannie Rose, Lydia Robinson, Edith Getty and Mabel Leach.

Guests were Mr. Robinson's mother, Mrs. F. M. Robinson, and Miss Ruth Stewart of this city; Mrs. Mary T. Harer of Oakland, guest of Mrs. Croal; and Mrs. Fred Robinson of Anaheim.

Announcement was made that a special meeting for quilting will be held September 12 in the hall, where covered-dish luncheon will be served at noon. The next regular meeting will take place September 26.

Country Club Members Dine and Dance Next Saturday Night

Saturday night parties at Santa Ana Country club have proven so successful that this month's dance for club members will be an event of next Saturday night at 9:30 o'clock in the clubhouse, where dinner and dancing will be on the program.

For those who attend the dinner, there will be a get-together between 8:30 and 9:30 o'clock, when cocktails will be served. Dinner and dancing will begin shortly after 9:30 o'clock, with a Dutch treat table expected to prove especially popular. Of course there will be the usual individual tables for those who make up parties.

Clarence Williams and his Knights of Swing will provide the music.

On the committee in charge will be Mr. and Mrs. Robert Fernandez, Mr. and Mrs. Riley Huber and Mr. and Mrs. William Jeffrey. They request that all reservations be made by Friday night at the Coun-club.

Presentation of Gifts Follows Serving Of Dessert.

Guests at a recent affair in the home of Mrs. Fred Merker, 2115 North Ross street, provided the daintiest of layette articles for the honoree, Mrs. Armand Faccou, whose husband is a nephew of Mrs. Merker.

Frozen raspberry pie topped with whipped cream was served with hot nuts, tea and coffee early in the afternoon. Guests were seated at a table centered with shower packages heaped high in a bootee container, on either side of which were crystal bowls of floating amaryllis lilies and primroses.

Mrs. Faccou received her gifts at the close of the refreshment interval. Guests enjoyed an informal afternoon, spending some of the time in the attractive yard of the home.

In the group with the honor guest, Mrs. Faccou and Mrs. Merker were Mrs. Carl Lykke and daughter, Nanci Diane; Mrs. Carl Edgar and daughter, Shirley; and Mesdames Christine Faccou, Frank Philbrook, L. A. Dickey, H. P. Lykke, Ellis Wagner, R. P. Anderson, Alfred Germain and the Misses Charlotte Philbrook and Frances Philbrook.

Royal Neighbors

Past oracles filled the stations at a meeting of Magnolia camp R. N. A. Monday night in M. W. A. hall. Pearl Lamb served as oracle for Nettie Smith, who filled the position of chanceller.

Others on the staff were Jean Tibbets, vice oracle; Martha McKeen, past oracle; Lenora Farmer, inner sentinel; Etta Ericks, outer sentinel; Gertrude Birn marshal; Clara Blackwell, assistant marshal; Elizabeth Lavery, manager.

Visitors were Mrs. Gutherford and Mrs. Miller of Missouri and Mr. and Mrs. Bert Fletcher, of Long Beach. Mrs. Fletcher, who is district deputy, outlined the campaign for the new year.

Mrs. Etta Ericks won the prize of the evening. Refreshments of ice cream and cake were served. Appointed on the September committee were Daisy Scott, Elizabeth Warren, Ethel Manderscheid and Christine Nielsen.

Magnolia Circle will hold a family picnic Thursday evening at 7 o'clock in Santiago park. This will be a basket affair, with coffee, cream and sugar to be furnished by the host group. The camp will hold a rummage sale September 16-17. Plans were announced for the organization's meeting Friday, September 26 when Royal Neighbor lodges of the county will be guests.

Successful Fishing Enjoyed on Trip

Proving himself an Isaac Walton of no mean attainments, Merrill D. Grivel, Newport Road and McFadden street, caught the full limit of trout on almost all the fishing days of the outing from which he and Mrs. Grivel have just returned.

Seeking Bass Lake by way of Mint Canyon, the Mojave desert and the Tehachapi, Mr. and Mrs. Grivel found bridges still out as result of last spring's floods, and made a 40-mile detour to reach Bass Lake. Their first real fishing was at Granite Creek, where the limit of 25 was soon taken. Later in Tuolumne Meadows Mr. Grivel took the limit of 20 each of three fishing days.

In addition to the sport, the travelers had other pleasures such as visiting the Yosemitic which they entered by Wawona Big Trees, going to the Hetch Hetchy and seeing the source of San Francisco's water supply; crossing the famous Tioga Pass and staying at Convict Lake from which point Mr. Grivel hiked to Lake Dorothy and Lake Helen at an altitude of 11,000 feet. While on their trip, the travelers just missed meeting other Santa Ana and Tustin friends, the Richard Luers family staying in the Yosemitic, and Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Armstrong who were at Tuolumne Meadows.

BIRTHDAY OBSERVANCE

Quite a happy occasion was made Monday of the eighty-second birthday anniversary of E. J. Eaton, when members of the family circle gathered with him in the ranch home which he shares with his son and daughter-in-law, the Laurence W. Eatons, between Santa Ana and Anaheim.

Mrs. E. J. Eaton, who is making her home with Miss Clara Paddock, 813 Riverine avenue, their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Laurence Eaton, their daughter, Mrs. Louis Ewing of Corvallis, and two granddaughters, Miss Virginia Ewing and Mrs. Chester Ewing, comprised the intimate little family circle.

Dinner at mid-day included a decorated birthday cake in honor of the celebrant.

You And Your Friends

Wonderfully benefited in health by her extended summer visit in the east, Mrs. Lynn L. Ostrander has returned to her home, 1331 Tustin avenue. She spent part of her three months' absence with relatives and friends in Bennington and Salina, Kans., returning westward to Greeley and Denver, Colo., for the remainder of the time.

Among Santa Anans invited to attend a steak bake given last night by Anaheim Knights of Columbus in Anaheim park, were Charles Wolford and Messrs. and Mesdames A. A. Mandy, E. J. Vosskuhler, Walter Markel and Clyde Ashen.

THE ALLOWANCE

A child's allowance should not be used either as a reward or a punishment. It is his share of the money set aside for the children's needs. If he did not handle it himself someone else would do so for him. It ought to be his by right of family unity.

We give children an allowance to teach them how to use money. As they grow in understanding we teach them more about the family budget, how it is spent, and why. We try to have them buy as many of their own things as possible so that they will learn what they cost and how far money goes, or how short a stretch it makes.

We hope that the use of an allowance, coupled with the keeping of an account book, will train the children to wise spending and, in time, to conservation of their funds. Saving is not the beginning and end of the use of money. Spending is very important indeed, for we all must engage in it, like it or not. Saving comes afterward, if it can be managed.

Education, creating a sense of responsibility in the children in relation to the use of money is the reason for the allowance. If it is given or withheld according to the pleasure of the grown up person in charge this educational value is lost, and the allowance becomes not a help to the children, but a hindrance. They get wrong ideas about money at the start.

As soon as a child can earn money he should be allowed to do so, provided always that his earning does not interfere with his principal job—educating himself. It is always better for children to work for strangers. Work for relatives has not the same values in training than work for outsiders has. The standards of the strangers will be closer to actual conditions and the children's ideas about work will be more likely to be realistic than when they work for the family.

Money earned should not be spent carelessly. It is unwise to allow a child to feel that any money he earns is his for the spending while his father and mother continue to pay for his increasing expenses. There ought to be family cooperation in this. By the time the children are beginning to pick up odds and ends of work that give them a little money, they should be on such a footing with their parents as to share in the knowledge of the financial condition of the family. They should plan together. The children's earnings, if they are not needed for family necessities, should be banked to the children's accounts and saved toward their future expenses.

Many parents think it grasping and mean to take the children's earnings away from them for any purpose, even saving. They say indulgently, "Let them have it. It is theirs. They earned it." What has that got to do with the effect needless earning and spending are going to have on the habits of the children? Unwise use of money is one of the surest ways to ruin children that can be discovered or practiced.

Give the children their allowance and use it as an educational experience, not as a reward or a punishment.

LATE NEWS OF ORANGE AND VICINITY

TEA HELD FOR TRINITY GUILD

ORANGE, Aug. 24.—Mrs. Alfred Zapt and Mrs. Francis E. Smith were co-hostesses at a silver tea yesterday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Smith, 257 North Grand street. The party was the last of a series of affairs to benefit the Trinity Episcopal Woman's guild.

Party Sept. 1

A short business meeting was held in the house, conducted by Mrs. Smith, who is president of the group. Plans were made for a party to be held at the parish house September 1, honoring Miss Margery Armstrong, daughter of one of the members. Miss Armstrong will be a September bride. Following the meeting Mrs. W. C. Armstrong offered a vocal solo, "O Lovely Night!" Mrs. Lloyd Baker accompanied her and then played the first movement from Beethoven's Moonlight Sonata.

After the musical program the party moved to the beautiful garden, where chinkin-chex was played. Mrs. W. B. Thomasson of Garden Grove received first prize, and Mrs. B. J. Morey was consolled. Refreshments were then served at small tables covered with brightly flowered cloths.

Colorful Setting

Brightly colored umbrellas and chairs and the beautiful asters and zinnias blooming in the garden made a colorful setting for the tea. The tea table, from which were served tea and coffee, was spread with a yellow damask cloth and centered with a bowl of zinnias.

Assisting Mrs. Smith and Mrs. Zapt were Mrs. Cole Harwood, Mrs. Stanley Lohax, Mrs. Thomas Jessup Jr. and Miss Floy Bradshaw.

Committees For Church Appointed

ORANGE, Aug. 24.—The budget for church activities, set at a meeting of the finance committee of the First Methodist church Monday night, will be announced the latter part of September, when an every member canvass is to be conducted, according to the pastor, the Rev. Arthur T. Hobson.

Committee heads were appointed last night to take charge of the dinner of the Golden Jubilee celebration of the church, which is to be held September 18. The event will mark the 50th anniversary of the incorporation of the church.

L. W. Hemphill will have charge of the publicity for the event and has already begun to contact former members, who are to be given special invitations to be present. Mrs. Frank Batchelor was appointed to have charge of the covered dish dinner which is to be served at noon and she is to select her own committee of helpers.

Mrs. R. W. Hull, appointed previously to have charge of an exhibit of photographs and articles of historic value is making arrangements for a large display of this kind.

The Rev. Arthur T. Hobson will deliver the sermon. A number of former pastors are to assist at the service.

Chow Receives Awards At Show

ORANGE, Aug. 24.—It was a great day for the Brilliantine dog chow when two Orange Chows stood by with first place ribbons around their necks while their daughter became a champion.

Tonkee Brilliantine, 20-months-old Chow from Mr. and Mrs. Cecil J. Almbach's Ce-Nel Chow kennels, finished her championship climb at Santa Barbara in a blaze of glory and coincidences.

She swept the five-point show while her father—Champion Wuille Brilliantine—went best of breed, and her mother—Fluffee-Ting-Fu—went first in the American bred female class, the largest single entry in the show.

Tonkee won initial champion points the same day her father finished his championship. She was sold just after winning her first two-point show. She almost equalled the record of her father, who finished the championship climb in less than a year when 23 months old. The five point show was staged at the Hope ranch polo grounds and gave Tonkee points to spare as she needed but three to become champion. She was awarded a cash prize and ribbons. Champion Wuille Brilliantine received the only trophy, a $15 silver cup. Fluffee won cash prizes and ribbons.

LEAVE FOR NORTH

ORANGE, Aug. 24.—Mrs. R. L. Smith and daughters, the Misses Coleen and Norma Jean, of Emporia, Kans., have left for Bakersfield to visit their son and brother. The visitors have spent several days at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Lawson, 564 North Tustin street. Mrs. Lawson is a niece of Mrs. Smith.

School Term To Open On Sept. 12

ORANGE, Aug. 24.—Activities for the school year of 1938-1939 have been scheduled in a calendar issued for intermediate school children. School will open September 12. Armistice day will be observed as a holiday on November 11, with the end of the first quarter falling on November 12.

Thanksgiving will bring a vacation week end, beginning November 24. Christmas vacation will begin December 17 and end January 3. The end of the first semester will fall on January 28.

April 1 will mark the end of the third quarter. Spring recess will begin on that day and end April 2. Decoration day, May 30, will be the last "da yoff" until school ends on June 9. Graduation exercises will be held on June 8 in the Orange Union High school auditorium.

W.R.C. TOLD OF LIFE IN CHINA

ORANGE, Aug. 24.—The story of a childhood spent in China where she was born and where she lived until she was a young girl was told yesterday to members of the Women's Relief Corps and their friends by Mrs. Annie Bennett, East Chapman avenue, when a monthly party of the group was held at the home of Mrs. Rose Agnew, 506 East Almond avenue.

Mrs. Bennett told many interesting incidents of her early life as a part of a program given in the afternoon.

The event opened with a chicken dinner served at three tables centered with deep red roses and attractively appointed. Other numbers on the program were readings by Mrs. Jennie Williams, Mrs. Inez Spangler and Mrs. Freda Porter.

Mrs. Agnew was assisted in hostess duties by her niece Mrs. Ruth

Fisher, and by Mrs. Helen DeVoe. Present were Mesdames Annie Bennett, Jennie Williams, Lena Knack, Amelia Hart, Edith Richardson, Della Hoskins, Hattie Buhrman, Carrie Lewis, Florence Campbell, Freda Porter, William Batt, Ambrose Otto, Emma Carlson, Julia D. Pratt, Julia H. Miller, Minnie Huech, Essie Roger, Emma Anthony, Euphemia Raiss, Ethel Mann, Miss Nan Kyle and Miss Lewina Butler.

VFW AUXILIARY ARRANGES TEA

ORANGE, Aug. 24.—A silver tea to be held at the home of Mrs. Paul J. Rae Bunch, past matron of the Scepter chapter, 901 West Second street, September 8, was planned at a meeting of the auxiliary of Otto Rozell post of the V. F. W. last night, when the organization met at the V. F. W. hall with Mrs. Olive Hadley presiding. The tea will be held at 8 p.m.

Details of the breakfast to be served Sunday to members of posts and auxiliaries of the second district were discussed. The committee in charge is composed of Mesdames Charlotte Adams, Sidney Lewis and Rose Minton.

Guests present included Mesdames Anna Sullivan, Ruth O'Malley, Lurline Clayton, Lena Hanson, Eva McAvoy and Louise Hubbard, of Santa Ana, and Martha Russell, of Fullerton.

LAGUNA ABEACH, Aug. 24.—An intensive drive for new members of the Legion auxiliary of Laguna Beach has been started, prior to the national convention in Los Angeles September 13-23.

On the committee in charge of the membership campaign are Mary Foster, Hattie Durand, and Irene Weber, all of whom attended the recent pre-convention caucus held at Huntington Beach. At that meeting, the Laguna Beach auxiliary unit received a national citation for membership increase.

At the close of the meeting the hostesses served delicious tray refreshments of a jello dessert, homemade cookies and coffee. Present were Mesdames Elizabeth Brown Gelsomina B. Eye, Angeline Courtney, Etta Kirkwood, F. H. Mellor, Della Bishop, Emma Honadel, Louise Bradshaw, Mrs. Hayes, N. J. Whitney, Rae Bunch, Pauline Towle, Vesta Tracy, E. J. Browne, Florence McCoy, Margaret Faerber, Lillian Edwards, Ethel Powell, A. H. Tyrrell and Dora Waechter.

Circle Members Guests At Party

ORANGE, Aug. 24.—Mrs. E. S. Ross was hostess to members of the Scepter Social circle Monday afternoon at her North Cambridge street residence. She was assisted in entertaining by Mesdames Freda Garber, Iva Reeves and Daisy Grubwell.

A short business meeting was conducted by Mrs. Ethel Powell, president. Announcement was made that Mrs. Rae Bunch, past matron of the Scepter chapter, O. E. S., had presented the chapter with a new pedestal, which will be used for the first time at Thursday's meeting.

At the close of the meeting the hostesses served delicious tray refreshments of a jello dessert, homemade cookies and coffee. Present were Mesdames Elizabeth Brown Gelsomina B. Eye, Angeline Courtney, Etta Kirkwood, F. H. Mellor, Della Bishop, Emma Honadel, Louise Bradshaw, Mrs. Hayes, N. J. Whitney, Rae Bunch, Pauline Towle, Vesta Tracy, E. J. Browne, Florence McCoy, Margaret Faerber, Lillian Edwards, Ethel Powell, A. H. Tyrrell and Dora Waechter.

Breakfast Club To Meet Tomorrow

Dramatic readings by Henrietta Baker and accordion solos by Billy Ward will entertain members of the Santa Ana Breakfast club at 7:30 a.m. tomorrow at the Main Cafeteria as plans are being completed for an open-air breakfast September 1, at Santiago park.

Roch Bradshaw will serve as program chairman.

Vic Soper will be in charge of entertainment for the open-air breakfast and Howard Straw is heading the committee in charge of sale of tickets.

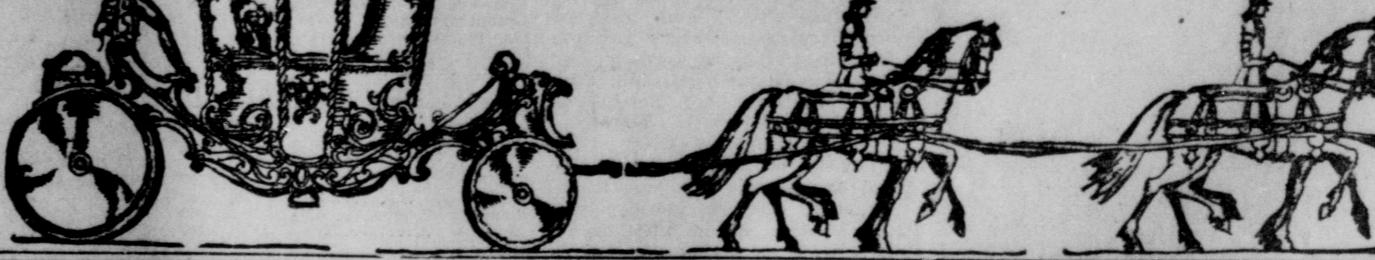

Orange County To Get Radio Boost

Word pictures of the beauties of Santa Ana and Orange county will be given over Station KFI on the "Pull Over, Neighbor" program at 7:30 p.m. today, according to a communication received by Howard L. Wood, secretary of the Santa Ana Chamber of Commerce.

The program includes "travel" through scenic points of interest in the county by means of information supplied by the chamber of commerce.

Tip on fashions: Hats this year take on the spirit of the 1900's. The latest models pitch forward from deep bandeau backs filled with flowers, or set lightly aloft in sailor, breton or bowl brimmed shapes. They are small and very chic and we like them very much.

B-A-

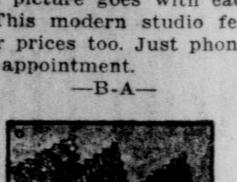

SCOULLER'S, 312 No. Sycamore street. We ask you, what is more fun than buying a formal evening frock? One that we particularly liked, was a dusky rose satin designed with off-the-shoulder puffed sleeves and dainty little flowers at the strap line. The skirt is a full flare while the bodice forms a moderately low neck line. You will simply delight in choosing an evening gown from the wide selection this store offers you.

B-A-

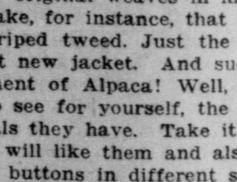

O RANGE COUNTY STAMP CO., 306 West Fifth street. One-day service! Think of it! In that short a time you may have your own special rubber stamp made. There are many grades of rubber, but this reliable firm uses the best obtainable. The sharp new type they use is made especially for rubber stamps, while they specialize in careful designing, to compose a stamp to suit your particular purpose. Stamp pads, Self-Inkers, Stamp Ink, Numbering Machines, Stencils, Bronze signs, Sales books and Crown Daters are all sold at this store.

B-A-

M ATTINGLY'S, 220 West Fourth street. We know you will like the chin wool skirts shown in this store. Fashioned with a flared skirt, high waist and belt at the natural waistline, they are outstanding in appearance. You will also enjoy the new gored skirt that comes in the many fall shades. These two styles are priced at $3.95. The tailored blouses at this price are the famous Wilshire brand. They come in silks and cottons.

B-A-

H ART'S, 306 North Sycamore street. Time passes, oh so swiftly when visiting this store as it seems as though they always have so many lovely things to show us. With winter approaching we are particularly thrilled over the plaids and intricate woolens that were shown us. And you have our word for it, as we saw it measured with our own eyes, that these materials run in width from 54 to 60 inches. Imagine! And such grand pieces too. That new suit you wanted this fall is now within your reach, when you can buy materials of this quality for only $1.95 a yard. Fancy weaves in light weight wools, for winter dresses are priced at $1.75. Because this is the last of the lot, Hart's are selling some of those really nice prints that are guaranteed against fading and shrinking for 29c. And is that a bargain!

E DDIE'S, 409 North Broadway. How does it sound? Steaming hot Boston Baked beans with delicious Boston Brown Bread—an extra large slice of homemade apple pie-creamed chicken on biscuits and all the fixings, and oh well, we could go on like that for ages and it would only make us hungrier and hungrier. Anyhow, it can be had, and more too, at Eddie's, which is one of our favorite eateries. And do you wonder?

B-A-

THE BOUQUET SHOP, 409 No. Broadway. Gifts of flowers are always welcome, so do not let birthdays or other anniversaries worry you any longer. If your friends are going some place special, or if you are unable to keep an important appointment, send flowers. If you are planning a wedding consult the Bouquet Shop for the decorations. Their originality in design will please you. Clever little bowls and vases to fit party occasions may also be purchased at this shop.

B-A-

S WANSON'S, 1807 North Main street. Planning a party? Swanson's is the place. And such a colorful atmosphere, with the gay umbrellas in the large outdoor patio is a typical setting. For winter they have an indoor party room too. And that delicious fried chicken, we never seem to get enough of it. Oh me, maybe we are just gluttons, but in our defense, we say from actual knowledge, everyone is when it is meal time at Swanson's.

B-A-

RONSHOLDT'S, 205 No. Broadway. You Willardites, will like the gay new uniforms, this shop has for you this year, in most any shade you want. W. J. H. for Willard Junior High school, comes either on the clever ascot tie of the uniform or on the pocket. Also for school, are the attractive Corduroy Jackets in colors rust, royal blue and wine. It is strictly tailored and just the thing for school.

Japanese Give Selves Taste of Air Warfare

What was to have been a defense drill against air raids turned into near-tragedy when an incendiary bomb dropped in Tokio during safety maneuvers by the Army Chemical Institute and the Defense Headquarters accidentally fell into the compound of a Buddhist temple, mushroomed as shown above into a huge cloud of smoke and flame and seriously burned several spectators. The injured were taken to a hospital.

That congressional investigator must be color-blind—our radicals are not red, they're merely pink—pale pink.

About fifty-five years ago, Samuel Kayzer, as the proprietor of a famous drama school in Chicago, supplied Edwin Booth's theatrical company with promising young mimes. Booth is long dead, and we are most of Kayzer's early discoveries—but Kayzer himself, is just shifting into high. Howard Hughes brought him to Hollywood eight years ago—at a salary of $1000 a week—to coach Billie Dove, then Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer made him dean of its talent school. But studio life was too slow—Kayzer decided it had no future. He resigned a few months ago and established a new dramatic school. His pupils—many of them top-flight stars—are gathering there next week to celebrate his birthday. He will be eight-five years young.

Had lunch with Minna Gombell—our most ardent fisherwoman—and heard a tale of woe. Early this summer she bought a 30 foot cruiser, put it on the ways, and started outfitting it with de luxe fishing equipment. While the yellow sail schooled her boat was being rigged with a new motor; while the tuna leaped, she was installing bait tanks and

New York Stocks

NEW YORK, Aug. 24. (UPI)—Stocks today made their eighth gain in nine sessions with volume increasing to the largest in two weeks. Automobile issues led the upturn. Chrysler and General Motors made new high. All stocks whose companies supply materials to the automobile industry joined the advance.

At one time gains ranged to 2 points. Today the close profit-taking reduced them considerably.

Buying spread into all sectors, including rails. At one time, Santa Fe had a one-point gain. Utilities were firm. Oils followed the rise at a leisurely pace and went the first to decline late in the day. Some selling also came into the building shares which also have been strong.

The mineral-surfaced asphalt shingle is by all odds the favorite roofing material of the American home-owner.

That is the unquestionable evidence returned by a survey recently conducted in 17 representative cities of the United States by the Ross Federal Research Corporation.

The cities in which the survey was conducted were Birmingham,

Ala., Buffalo, N. Y., Dallas, Tex.,

Houston, Tex., Indianapolis, Ind.,

Kansas City, Mo., Memphis, Tenn.,

Minneapolis, Minn., Oklahoma City, Okla., Pasadena and Redlands, Calif., Phoenix, Ariz., Sacramento, Calif., St. Louis, Mo., Salt Lake City, Utah, Springfield, Mass., Tampa, Fla., and Washington, D.C.

2250 Consumers Questioned

A total of 2550 consumers were interviewed. To the question, "Has the asphalt shingle roof which covers your house been satisfactory?" an affirmative answer was given by 2357—92.44 per cent vote of confidence.

Another question asked of the consumers was: "If you were buying a roof today, would you buy asphalt shingles?"

The replies showed that 2208 or

88.4 per cent of the 2550 families interviewed would unhesitatingly buy an asphalt shingle roof again.

In four of the cities—Indianapolis,

Kansas City, Mo., Memphis and

Springfield, Mass., less than one per cent stated that they would not buy such a roof if they were re-roofing their homes.

J. C. BOND ISSUE

The Board of Education has decided to ask the citizens of the school district to vote Junior College Bonds in the amount of $385,000 for new Junior College buildings.

This brings up the question as to how far the laboring man and the little home owner is obliged to go in the line of higher public education. It also raises the question as to what kind of public education is being furnished. These subjects we will discuss in a later issue.

It seems to The Register, however, that the members of the Board certainly should immediately stop the free tuition of out-of-state students, which last year amounted to some $22,000, before it asks the citizens to build a new school building so they can further extend this free service to out-of-state pupils.

The director of the college contended that they made money on out-of-state students because they received $90 from the state; that they made money because the increased number reduced the cost per student, but he gave no figures to substantiate this contention. The records show that without a charge for the use of the building, the per capita cost per student in 1934-35, which was the period with the lowest number of students since 1931, was $189.22, including $5 for moving expenses. Eliminating this $5 the cost, with 549 pupils, was $184.22. In 1937-38, the average attendance was 702 and the comparative cost was $186.08. So the increase of 153 students did not reduce the cost.

The reason the cost does not decrease with the number of students and the board making profit on the out-of-state students, for which the state pays $90, is that the school authorities constantly keep adding new courses so that the unit cost is not reduced and the contention made by the director is misleading and deceptive and not based on facts.

Without going into the benefits and the kind of education being taught, it thus seems the essence of inconsistency, with our present taxes jumping some 25 per cent, without a bond issue, to ask the citizens to add some $385,000 worth of debt which is admitted to be only the beginning, in order to continue to take more students from other states and have Santa Ana and the state of California citizens to pay for same.

It looks as if the Board of Education were duped, playing into the hands of monopolists, who are the only people who will benefit by this expenditure of free tuition, and which they say is needed to increase the population as an advertising scheme.

To add this burden to the already heavy tax load of the working class and the little home owner, in order to increase population and thus benefit the owners of real estate, for rent or sale, and the utilities, seems too absurd to be a reality, if it were not a fact. Let the advocates explain how any other than the above would be benefited.

Establish Tenure Law

Not only would the bond issue greatly add to the burdens of paying expenses, but it would fasten on the Junior College the tenure law; that is, after any teacher was here three years, he could not be dismissed unless the Board could prove him incompetent and this is an extremely difficult thing to do. The law compels any junior college, with an average attendance of over 550, to establish tenure. This certainly would reduce the efficiency of the teaching force because it is human nature to let down when one is not prodded by the stimulant of competition.

EXPLAINING THE COMPETITIVE SYSTEM

We never have read a better explanation of the competitive system than that written by E. C. Harwood, as published by the American Institute of Economic Research under the heading of "Current Economic Delusions."

We believe if every voter in the United States would read this article and understand it, it would do as much as anything we know of to clarify our economic difficulties. For this reason, we are publishing this article at the bottom of this column beginning in today's issue. It will run in two installments.

If the reader does not have time to read it today, he may feel that he has a right to vote, he certainly has an obligation to become informed. If any reader can see anything that is not sound in this presentation or how the competitive system as explained in this article would fail to work to the general welfare, it is more than we can see. We are glad to give our readers the opportunity of reading it. The columns of this paper are open for comment.

ECONOMIC DELUSIONS

That the Competitive System Has Failed
(From American Institute of Economic Research
By E. C. Harwood.)

The popular belief that free competition is unable to provide the solution for our economic ills is usually expressed in some such phrase as "Capitalism has broken down," or "Capitalism has become bankrupt, and should be liquidated." As a general rule, however, those who use these phrases do not mean "Capitalism;" or perhaps it would be more accurate to say that they themselves do not attach any precise meaning to "Capitalism."

As an overall description of a competitive society, "Capitalism," it seems to me, is wholly inadequate. It is a hangover of the days when capital was pictured as the enemy of the proletariat, and when this notion was inexplicably confused with Workingmen's fears of the machine and the large aggregations of capital which made factory production possible.

"Capitalism" is really an imposter term, at least in the sense that it is used by those who are denouncing it today. Capital or that part of existing wealth which is used for the production of more wealth, is an essential feature of a modern industrial civilization. Without capital, mankind would be reduced to the simplest forms of production, and the standard of living would consist of bare necessities only, with frequent intervals when there would not even be enough of them to keep all the population alive. Capital is just as essential today in Soviet Russia as it is in the United States, and the label "Capitalism" might with equal propriety be attached to the economic organization of the U. S. S. R. as to the economic system used in the U. S. A.

The further explanations of those who denounce "Capitalism" make clear the real object of their de-

THE CRUX OF THE NEW DEAL

The New Deal permitting different states to establish wages that WPA workers can receive, if continued, is certain to wreck any semblance of the competitive system. This ruling penalizes the honest, efficient, unskilled laborer. In permitting these arbitrary wages, it tells the unskilled laborer, in reality, that he will be much better off if he becomes so inefficient that he cannot get a job on private employment, where the employer is only able to pay him 20 cents or 30 cents an hour. It tells these workers that if they refuse to accept this wage or become so inefficient that no one will give them work of this nature, then they will go to work for the WPA at as high as 60 cents an hour. It tells the slow, inefficient worker that if he is thrifty and tries to live on his income and accumulates a home that must continue to work on a competitive basis at much less than he can get if he is shiftless and inefficient and gets on the WPA payroll.

For any government to so penalize the honest worker and a thrifty person and pay the inefficient worker, who gets on the government, much more for unit of production than the private citizen can earn is the very antithesis of democracy. So, instead of bringing about a condition that will return prosperity so that each man will get more nearly an equal amount of reward for a given unit of energy, we are doing exactly the opposite. The results of course of this will be greatly reduced production, and stopping of all expansion and development and a lower and lower standard of living. All slow inefficient men will soon learn that they will be better off to do such poor work that they are given government jobs where they are paid on the basis of their needs rather than what they produce on a competitive basis.

This is the crux of the New Deal.

"CREDIT IS SUSPICION ASLEEP"

Someone has wisely said that, "credit is suspicion asleep," and when the government, by its laws, makes it possible for the banks to pyramid credit and raise the price of commodities, when the government borrows, or when business men have confidence in the prospects of profit, we are bound to have very severe cycles with great suffering and loss to all the people, excepting those few who can see in advance when credit is to be contracted.

In the book, "Current Economic Delusions" by the American Institute of Economic Research, this conclusion is reached:

"As long as we insist on the feasibility of bootstrap lifting and try every new perpetual motion scheme that's offered, there is no conceivable form of money which can protect us from the inevitable consequences of our own folly."

And this is demonstrated after nine years of deficit—we are not able to tax ourselves enough to pay the running expenses of the government by the amount equivalent to $100 for every worker in the United States. Eventually this folly must be paid for.

GAMBLING AND RISKS

Invariably the meddler and reformer and new "old-dealers" speak about the gamblers being our worst enemies and they usually use the term that an investor in stocks is a gambler. But, if they will refer to the definition of gambling, they will find that it is playing a game with the idea of winning.

Buying stocks is simply going into business. It is taking great risks and risks are absolutely necessary for human progress. Gambling on the other hand is of no benefit to society. It certainly is a great benefit to society and to the owner of stocks to have someone willing to buy when the owner wants to sell.

Those who misuse the word usually are those who have no stocks or have lost heavily on them and want to blame someone else for their own lack of judgment.

THE SUPREME EGOTIST

A supreme egoist is one who makes no attempt to create the comforts of life to benefit humanity, but actually believes that he is smart enough to tell others how to create them. In other words, he does not practice what he preaches. He does not take his own medicine.

Most of our politicians are nothing but supreme egoists. They say, "turn more management of the wealth of the world over to us and we will make it grow faster than you can." Yet they never attempted to demonstrate how it can be done.

How gullible people are to believe in any such egoism! It is ever so with all dictators.

This is most commonly revealed by such assertions as "Production should be for use, and not for profit," a statement which clearly shows that it is the competitive system that is really under fire. Of course, this is also demonstrated by the many different attempts that have been made to deal with our current economic ills by other means than freeing competition. In part, this is the result of the pleas of those specially privileged, who desire to consolidate and improve semi-monopoly positions. But their pleadings carry weight and become enacted into law because of the wide acceptance of this notion that the competitive system has failed.

What is A Competitive System?

Although most of those who have now lost faith in free competition have probably never taken the trouble to analyze just what free competition would mean, it is clear, I think, that such an analysis is necessary before further progress in this discussion can be made. In the first place, it is important to separate the idea of competition from the popular understanding that it is a form of commercial warfare. Competition and war are really opposite concepts. An essential element of war is the attempt to overpower the enemy by superior force; whereas an essential element of free competition is that no one of the competitors has power to coerce his fellows, and each is left to do only that which he chooses to do in the light of the circumstances, which are substantially the same for all concerned.

In short, free competition is not warfare, but the reverse. It is nothing more nor less than voluntary cooperation, with emphasis on the word "voluntary." Now, it is obvious, I think, that free competition or voluntary cooperation, cannot exist in a society which tolerates slavery. People can be said to cooperate voluntarily, only when they are wholly free (as far as the circumstances of this life permit) to

SETBACKS FOR SIT-DOWNERS

By ERIK MCKINLEY ERIKSSON
Professor of History, University of Southern California

During the three years of its existence, the National Labor Relations Board has issued some amazing decisions. Employers have ceased to expect fair treatment from this bureaucratic organization. This is partly due to the one-sided law under which the board operates and partly to the attitude of its members who have gone out of their way to show their partiality for labor groups, particularly those affiliated with the C. I. O.

No orders issued by the board have been more extraordinary than those commanding various employers to restore, with back pay, employees who have engaged in sit-down strikes. Even though the sit-downers have been convicted in state courts of unlawfully retaining the employer's property, the N. L. R. B. has not seen fit to make exceptions.

Thus, on April 21, 1938, the board ordered the Douglas Aircraft Company of Santa Monica, California, to restore to its payroll 45 former employees, including 11 convicted sit-downers. These workers had engaged in a sit-down strike in February, 1937, but had been promptly ejected from the company's plant through the energetic action of the district attorney and the police.

Subsequently, in December, 1937, 22 of the sit-downers were convicted in a Los Angeles county superior court on the charge that they had conspired "to commit forcible detainer." Fines ranging from $150 to $600 each had been levied against them.

Ignoring the convictions, the board ordered 11 of those affected to be restored with back pay on the allegation that "the strike was caused by unfair labor practices" on the part of the aircraft company.

The company took immediate steps to contest the order in court but, before a hearing could be held, the board withdrew its order for amendment and correction. Whether another attempt will be made to force the restoration of these particular sit-downers remains to be seen, but it is doubtful in view of two recent decisions handed down by circuit courts of appeals.

One of these decisions was rendered by the circuit court of appeals at Chicago on July 22 in a case involving the Fansteel Metallurgical corporation. This company had been ordered to restore 90 employees who had participated in a sit-down strike early in 1937.

The court majority, in overruling the order, cited the board's own opinion that the workers had done "foolish and illegal act."

Emphatically, the court declared that "an employer is warranted in discharging his employees . . . when they take and retain exclusive possession of his property against his will."

The employees, the court pointed out, had staged a sit-down strike instead of first availing themselves of "a complete and adequate remedy . . . at the hands of the board . . . if their cause was just."

Incidentally, 37 of the sit-downers had been convicted in an Illinois court of unlawfully seizing and detaining property, a conviction which had been upheld by the state appellate court on May 10, 1938.

Another court setback for sit-downers was administered on July 29, 1938, by the United States circuit court of appeals at New Orleans. The court's decision was rendered in a case affecting the Peninsular and Occidental Steamship company of Jacksonville, Florida. The company has discharged 145 members of the crews of two of its vessels after they had staged sit-down strikes while in port in June, 1937. In refusing to enforce the order, the court said, "It cannot be said that it was not a necessary measure for the safety of the ships that the company should discharge the entire crews and replace them with other crews that would not be torn with dissension and probably be mutinous."

This decision and that rendered at Chicago should be halted only by employers but by the public generally. It is inconceivable that the sit-down strike, an entering wedge for communism, should be tolerated in the United States.

Yet the country has witnessed the spectacle of a federal agency condoning this form of outlawry. The courage of the courts in condemning this procedure is most commendable. That the decisions will be sustained by the supreme court ought to be taken for granted.

"It is for each to utter that which he sincerely believes to be true, and add his unit of influence to all other units of influence, and let the results work themselves out."—Spencer. Contributors are urged to confine their articles to 300 words.

Fellow Citizens—

Senator Sheppard, chairman of a committee investigating the improper and illegal use of Campaign funds, states that it is illegal for a candidate for the U. S. Senate to collect campaign funds from WPA and other workers on relief. Harry Hopkins, in a speech to the WPA workers stated that relief funds should be used to buy shoes, clothes and food, and not contributed to a campaign fund. But here in California without any protest the Old Age Pensioners are assessed some $50,000 per month by the promoters of a pension scheme, which is being used almost exclusively as a campaign fund.

The candidates who endorse the scheme and pledge themselves to support same when elected to office have at their command, to be used in the campaign, dozens of speakers and radio time over numerous radios, six days each week. The funds are obtained from old age pensioners who receive both Federal and State Relief funds, for the sole purpose of buying food, clothes and shelter for themselves. The candidate supported is as much the beneficiary of the pension funds as if he had collected same directly. Even more so, for he has the benefit of a thorough working organization of speakers and radio artists. The result is that a candidate and his friends pay pension taxes, to be used as campaign funds by his opponents. A republican pays pension taxes to be used by a Democratic candidate, or vice-versa. A taxpayer pays pension taxes to be used by a candidate who promises to increase the pension taxes. A widow washing to support orphan children pays pension taxes, to be paid to men and women who drive good cars, wear splendid clothes, eat "ham and eggs," and make speeches telling the pensioners "what they can buy" with "30 dollars a week."

Pensioners who get $25 dollars per month hire men and women who pretend to be so much interested in the "old folks," and pay them $35 per week, so they can live on the fat of the land, and occasionally make a speech telling the old folks that they will eat "ham and eggs and steak," instead of hamburger, some day in the "sweet bye and bye," if they will elect a candidate to the U. S. senate who says "he is in sympathy with all the California pension scheme."

If these promoters and speakers are so much devoted to the old age pensioners, why are they not willing to live on a salary equal to an old age pensioners' income?

It is neither just nor legal for a pensioner to donate Federal and state relief funds to parasites who do not know (judging from writings and speeches) the elementary principles of pensions and taxes to drive from town to town to tell the old folks what a wonderful full time we will have when all the folks over 50 quit work and are paid "30 dollars each Thursday."

The taxpayers' patience has almost ended. In a speech a few nights ago over radio, a taxpayer said to a group of property owners that he is in favor of the taxpayers going on a "sit down strike" or else enforcing the payment of pensions to those who misuse and illegally spend pension funds. Old age pensioners, we are paid Federal and State funds as relief. We owe it to the taxpayers to use it for the purposes intended.

A clock in Canada has been running constantly since 1892. It thinks it's a politician.

Employees of the St. Louis waterworks called off a proposed strike the other day. They finally settled the issue, but it looked like a while as if they might have to faucet.

A fisherman in Yatesville, N.Y., has caught a trout with two mouths and two sets of teeth, and he's got enough nerve to try to take some credit for the feat.

Bees, it has been announced, don't see red. What is it, then, that upsets them?

While hearings in the government suit against those movie companies are going on, it's assumed the defendants will block book and listen.

What is the criterion of a satisfactory economic system? The answer to this question can perhaps be found by examining that result of our present economic scheme which gives rise to the greatest hardships and the most dissatisfaction. It will probably be conceded that this feature of our economic system is the final distribution of currently produced wealth.

This is a sufficient description of the free competitive system for our purposes at least for the time being. When and
